

Simplify and Align the Buying Process with Your Business

License Management

As an Atlassian Platinum Partner, E7 is here to make the process of purchasing and renewing Atlassian software licenses straightforward. Though the process can be complicated, our goal is to simplify this for you. Our team offers personalized guidance to ensure you have the right Atlassian and Marketplace licenses that fit your needs. We also offer flexible payment plans that distribute the cost of technology investments over time.

Our License Specialists go beyond mere transactions to offer strategic guidance for license management, cost optimization, and co-terming. We'll take care of your Atlassian and Marketplace licensing needs, so you can concentrate on delivering great work.

Quote

"We chose E7 because of the 'realness' of the people. Everyone we spoke with during the sales process, both technical and sales, was simply themselves. Its continuing on the project and we couldn't be happier to know we are working with an honest partner that has our best interest in mind. This is a start to a great partnership."
